Ap Interesting Decision.

Washington, October 1..-Land Commissioner Gro." has rendered a decision in the case of May Barr, a resident of Mitche", in the Dakota and dis rict. It appears from the testimony that in July, 1885, Mrs. Barr, then single and a resident of the state of lows, went to Dakota on a visit, and while chare took up-80 acres acjoining a ract then recent y entered by Michael Barr. Bue purchased a house and had it moved on her claim, proke one acre and made other improvements. At hat time, she says in her estimony, sue had no intention of marrying Mr. Barr, but a er they married. when they moved their houses up close together un the line and sodiced. them up all around on the outside making one house and they were then paperec; that Barr out his bec, stove, table, etc., in als and she but her bed, stove, table, etc., iu lers: that there is no means of communication between the two different parts of the house, except by going outside, each having an outside door; that she acted in good faith in making the entry, not knowing Michael sarratine time and having no understanding that it was to be kept in the Barr family; and that she complied with the homestesc aw fully.

Mrs. Barr's claim is rejected on the ground La: 1083and and w'e cannot maintain separate residences af the same time and in the same house, so that each by virtue of the said residence may perfect an entry under the homes ead aw. tis said that there are a number of cases in the general land office similar in a.
